

Tutoría de la Sociedad Honoraria Hispanica

Workshops will foster a friendly an effective learning atmosphere to remediate or enhance the Spanish language experience.

All tutoring will be in room C-22

-The 1st Thursday of the month shall be a writing workshop. Please have students bring a sample of writing done in class.

-The 2nd and 4th Thursdays will be grammar workshops, please bring whatever material that you are having difficulty with and a sample of grammar classwork.

-The 3rd Thursday will be reserved for Oral speaking skills remediation and tutoring. Please have students bring an oral sample on their phone or other device as a starting point for remediation, along with examples of class oral activities.

-In the event of a 5th Thursday, this day will be open to students with any type of help/remediation needed. Students should still bring the necessary materials for each type of remediation (writing, grammar, orals etc.)

Students will be required to sign into a Google Doc when attending a session, you will have access to view their attendance from the Google Docs document which is refreshed automatically online, and accessible from your Gmail Account.

These are suggestions to be used as you wish or not, totally at the discretion of teacher, coach or counselor desires.
